

Lesson 25 Follow All the Rules

Sing-Along and Read-Along with Me

Remember, boys and girls, to follow all the rules.

Remember, rules are made to take care of you and me.

No running by the pool.

No playing by the stove.

Wait for the crossing guard.

Don't cross the street alone.

Never talk to strangers.

Shout loudly if they grab you.

Always try to walk with friends;

watch for their safety too.

Story

Some people think rules are silly, but we have to remember that rules are there to protect us. Before you cross the street, you should wait for the crossing guard. If you don't, you could be hit by a car. You should always have an adult nearby when you go to the pool because you could drown if you fall in. Playing by the stove can lead to bad burns. If a stranger starts talking to you, you should shout because that stranger might not be nice. So remember; watch out for your safety and your friends' safety by following the rules.
