

27

Appreciate Your Parents

1. Story Time!

Write a short paragraph using the vocabulary we learned in this lesson about appreciating your parents. Include at least three examples of how your parents have done something for you or times that you are very grateful toward them. At the end, write one way you can show them you appreciate them and then go fulfill that last deed!

2. Conversations

Create a short series of conversations with Speaker A speaking in very wordy phrases or sentences and have Speaker B try to shorten them and repeat what A says in a concise, brief manner.

1. A: _____

B: _____

2. A: _____

B: _____

3. A: _____

B: _____

1. A: _____

B: _____

3. Test Yourself!

Can you sing the song of this chapter without looking at the lyrics provided? Grade yourself between 1-10 according to your memorization!